Dear Parent/Carer

RE: Visit to see The Madness of George III at Nottingham Playhouse, 2nd November 2018

As you are aware the BBC came into school and filmed your child's drama lesson on 25th September. The film which focuses on former Arnold Hill student Adam Penford, Artistic Director at the Nottingham Playhouse, is scheduled to be broadcast on BBC Inside Out East Midlands on 5th November.

Your child was one of a small group of pupils chosen randomly to be interviewed by the BBC following the lesson, and I am delighted that this group have now been invited by Nottingham Playhouse to attend the opening evening of Adam's latest production, The Madness of George III, on Friday 2nd November 2018.

There is no payment required for the visit, however, you will be required to drop off and collect your child from the Playhouse at the beginning and end of the performance.

The BBC will be filming our pupils again before the performance begins, and your child will therefore be required to meet me in the foyer for 6.30pm. I am expecting the performance to finish at 10.00pm and am asking that parents are waiting in the foyer at that time to collect their child. A member of staff will stay with our pupils until they have been collected.

School uniform is not necessary. Pupils will be responsible for any money they wish to bring to buy food or drinks during the interval.

If you would like your child to participate in this visit, could you please complete and return the attached consent form to the Trips Mailbox situated in PSU, B Block by Monday 22nd October 2018.

The permission you gave previously for the BBC to film your child also applies to this visit and no further video/ photographic consent is required.

We reserve the right to exclude from the trip, at any point, any pupil whose behaviour gives us cause for concern.

Yours faithfully

N Burscough-Brown
