Teacher of Drama and Art – part-time
2 days a week
Main scale
Required September 2017

Arnold Hill Academy is an inspirational place to work. The large academy campus is located in a pleasant, suburban area of Nottingham and is undergoing substantial environmental development, including a brand new building, which provides an atmosphere extremely conducive to learning. All our staff are aspirational for themselves and their students. Results are showing an upward trend in both GCSE and at A level.

We are looking for a committed, dynamic and dedicated teacher who is able to teach Drama and Art. The successful candidate will be joining our enthusiastic Arts Faculty in our new state-of-the-art building which opened in September 2016.

Our ethos is that the Arts should be accessible for all and lessons are carefully designed to take into account all levels of ability. The successful candidate will be versatile and have a range of interests and skills.

Arnold Hill Academy is part of The Trent Academies Group which includes Rushcliffe School, West Bridgford and The Farnborough Academy in Clifton. This will in time provide fantastic opportunities for teachers to develop their practice and skills within schools becoming part of the Group.

Applications from experienced and newly qualified teachers are welcome. We offer a full induction programme, excellent preparation for the next stage of your career and a rich menu of extra-curricular activities. We are fully committed to fostering a love of learning in all pupils and certainly play a significant part in ensuring that 'Everyone is given the chance to shine brightly.'

Please note that there is an expectation within our school that all staff take responsibility for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people. This post is therefore subject to an enhanced DBS Check.
