Cyber Bullying Statement

Cyber bullying is when anyone uses online websites and mobile apps such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter to target, impersonate, harass, threaten or intimidate another person. This is an extension of face-to-face bullying and is viewed by the Academy as a very serious matter.

If anyone becomes involved, even in a small way such as 'sharing' or 're-tweeting' a malicious post, then the Academy will take significant action and the perpetrators, if they are students, will face considerable sanctions, including for some the possibility of being permanently excluded.

All members of the Arnold Hill community – staff and students – have a right to work and go about their day in a safe and healthy environment. If you become aware of any cyber bullying activities or are unsure about something you see online, please bring this to the attention of a Head of Year or Senior Leader as soon as possible.

Notts Police also recommend that parents visit the Get Safe Online website for further expert information and advice on keeping their children safe.
