

3rd March 2021

Dear Parent/Carer

Re: World Book Day 4th March 2021

I hope you and your family are well and staying safe.

World Book Day is fast approaching on Thursday the 4th March. Though many students are not in school, we are eager to get everyone as involved with the celebration of books as possible!

We will be running the following activities for students to get involved in from wherever they are:

- Literature Costume – Dress up
- Toilet Roll Character – Using a toilet roll, create a literature character
- 100 Word Story – Write a story in less than 100 words. There are some great ideas and tips on this site <https://thewritepractice.com/short-story-ideas/>
- ‘Catch’ Your Pet Reading – Take an interesting photo of your pet reading in an unusual place
- Potato Character – Create a character using a potato
- The Great Bookish Bake-Off – Bake a literature themed cake
- Interpretive Telling – Film a dance that encompasses the themes/plot/emotions of a book

There will be prizes drawn for each year group for ‘Best Entry’, ‘Most Original Entry’ and a ‘Participation Draw’. To be entered, students will need to:

- Take a photo/video and save it
- Attach their entry to an email labelled with their name, year group and title of activity. For example, Michelle Smith, Year 10, The Great Bookish Bake-Off
- And finally, send to AHA_English@arnoldhillacademy.co.uk

Entry submissions will close on Monday the 8th March at 12:00, giving students the whole weekend to really perfect their entries.

Here at Arnold Hill we are incredibly proud of the efforts and enthusiasm that has gone into WBD over the last few years. Once students are back in school and settled in, we will be looking at holding a day to celebrate WBD further within school. Once a date for this has been set, you will be notified - keep an eye out and keep costumes ready!

We look forward to seeing all the wonderful entries and having everyone as involved as possible!

Yours faithfully
